Out of the pass: "I'm going to complete it 100%." 2 weeks later: "Add $30 on Steam.". you give challenges impossible to comp. most people have other things to do in life. so we cant just play 6 hrs of pubg a day. pass is just for $$ zz. worst thing ever. never buy again .. They removed regions and now you end up on a server with people from different regions. You get desync and enemy names that are hard to track due to different language.. Quit with the dresses and other useless trash items on the pass, after the g3 elegant skin at lvl 50 everything else is just garbage "floral" tops and dresses and bad emotes. Why would so many of these items belong in a game like PUBG. I liked the backpacks but the best one was locked behind a challenge that seems impossible. "two headshots from 200 meters away in a single game". Everytime you would get the headshot from that range the person will get revived unless you play solo.. Would recommend if it didn't have a bunch of irrelevant copy items in the pass. My steam inventory for PUBG is already in the hundreds.. Worth buying if you want to add some meaning to a game via missions and challenges.

HOWEVER, the later you buy it the less profitable it is (and I do not recommend it). Unlike previous season passes like Sanhok Pass, weekly challenges are resetting.
